Dear Mr. Ernest:

Your letter of November 26th reached us today. I am sorry that you have not heard from us before, but your original letter must have gone astray.

I am enclosing a photograph of Jack Youngblood which I hope will be of some use to you. Since THE DEVIL TO PAY was published in 1961, we no longer have our files on the book in New York.

Good luck with your research project.

Sincerely,

Rosalie Swedlin
